

To celebrate the Week of the Child and Youth
The John Howard Society of Hamilton, Burlington and Area is hosting an

Art contest / Showcase

Two Grand Prizes of $100

If you are a youth between the ages of 12-25 here is your time to showcase your artistic abilities.

There will be two categories, one is Life in the Steel city: Through Your Eyes and the second is Artist's Choice: Open Submissions.

We are accepting art in any medium:

Paint, drawing, poems, stories, songs, photography, collage, ect.

Your art will be showcased at the Sky Dragon Café, 27 King William St. during the James Street North Art Crawl on Friday November 12, 2010 and will remain up until the end of November. Not artistic? Don't feel left out. The winners will be picked by you. You can vote starting November 12th - November 19th. On Friday November 19th artists and the community are invited to attend between 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. where we will have a live DJ. Voting will be open until 7:30 p.m. and the winners will be announced at 8:00 p.m.

All submissions must be handed in to the John Howard Society at 225 King William St. by 5:00 p.m. Wednesday November 10, 2010. Please put your name, age, contact information and category on the BACK of your submission. If you have any questions or would like further information, please contact Eileen Corcoran ext. 285 or Sara Schofield ext. 299 at the John Howard Society 905-522-4446. The two winning submissions will be displayed at The John Howard Society after the showcase for a period of 6 months. The remaining submissions can be picked up at the John Howard Society from December 1 to December 17, 2010.
