Hamilton Teen Idol Held in celebration of National Child Day

HAMILTON, ON – November 6, 2009 – Let's celebrate Hamilton's most precious resource – our children and youth! Hamiltonians are encouraged to support National Child Day and show children and youth that they are important. In 1993, the Government of Canada proclaimed Nov. 20 National Child Day to mark two historic events: the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of the Child and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.

The Week of the Child and Youth Hamilton invites all people to attend Hamilton Teen Idol 2009. This free event will be held on Friday November 20th, 6:30 pm -9:00 pm in the Mohawk College Auditorium, McIntyre Theatre. After auditioning many youth, 20 of Hamilton's vocally gifted were chosen to compete for the title of Hamilton Teen Idol. This opportunity highlights talented youth living in Hamilton and provides these youth with the opportunity to exercise their "Right to Be Heard" in an enjoyable way.

The Week of the Child and Youth (WOCY) Hamilton values and celebrates children and youth as distinctive and cherished members of society through the promotion of activities and events. This year Hamilton is celebrating its 30th anniversary of the Week of the Child and Youth, and over 16 years of National Child Day events.
